Product Description: Basic Use: Imperial STONE® is intended for interior and exterior nonstructural lightweight veneer facing on masonry, metal or frame construction for aesthetic purposes. The product can be used on new construction, exterior or interior walls, remodeling and redecorating existing walls, fireplace openings, chases, hearths, exterior chimney finishes, columns, backsplashes, foundations, retaining walls, planters and much more.

Limits: Imperial STONE® should not be assumed to add strength to load-bearing capacity. This stone should not be used in below water applications as in swimming pool liners, in areas vulnerable to slush formed by salt or other chemicals used to melt snow or ice. This stone should be installed a minimum of 4" above finished grade. Refer to Installation Instructions on facing page.

Composition and Materials: Natural stones in various sizes, shapes and textures are used to form molds. These stones are comprised of a mixture of Portland cements, sands, lightweight aggregates, iron oxide pigments and other materials. Our stone conforms to ASTM C150, ASTM C 330, ASTM C 144, SBCCI Section 1405.6. Types, Sizes, Weight, Footage and Colors, Imperial STONE® is available in: BC, GRA, Brown, Brooklyn Brown, Champagne, Chesapeake, Chestnut, Forest Brown, Havana Gray, Oak Hill, Sierra, Smokey Mountain, Tennessee Gray and Walnut. Colors subject to change without notice. Special colors available depending on project size.

Packaging: Standard pallet consists of 1 large box with 8 boxes inside. Boxes are labeled with our name, website address, stone color and style. See photos of stone packaging to the above left and right of page. For your convenience, Port-A-Pak boxes have a wax coating and may be stored outside.

Expressed Warranty: Thirty (30) Year Product Warranty. Issued on a "Written Request for Warranty Basis." Contact Imperial STONE® , or your Distributor, for a warranty request form. No warranty valid unless issued directly by Imperial STONE® , and within three months of project completion.
